STATE FAVORABLE TO MODIFIED FREEWAY ROUTE — DALY CITY OFFICIALS SATISFIED

HEAVY blocks designate north county freeway recommendations of the State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack. Daly City officials are satisfied with the modified Junipero Serra and east-west lateral routes as shown. The State Highway Commission may take final action within the next two months to adopt the routes as "final."

No Need For More Hearings

Engineer Recommends Lateral That Won't Move Single Home

Daly City councilmen, in the words of City Attorney Paul Hupf, "today are a lot closer" to victory in their campaign for state freeway route adoptions that will least harm Daly City.

It was good news to them last Thursday in Oakland when State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack recommended to the State Highway Commission four north county freeway links — most important of which to DC are the Junipero Serra north-south routing and the Serra to Skyline lateral.

Both latter routes conform to what Daly City officials say would be the least disruptive to the community.

Mayor Edward Dennis on Monday night declared Womack's recommendations "tantamount to approval by the Highway Commission."

Hupf, who addressed the state board in Oakland, said all governmental agencies (city and county) affected by the recommended routes have 30 days in which to notify the state approving or disputing the routes. If the state is requested to hold another public hearing on any one of the four routes, Hupf said, it is likely that this hearing would be authorized.

But Hupf pointed out that Daly City and the county were satisfied with the two major routes here (Junipero Serra and the lateral connecting Serra to Skyline Edgemar freeway) and that a new hearing on these routes could only be asked for by the council or supervisors — not the other cities.

The council (one member absent via illness) left no doubt about their position Monday evening. They approved all four recommendations made by Womack, moved that all further hearings on the routes be waived, and in still another resolution asked the Highway Commission to adopt all four routes—each an essential part of the north county freeway network.

Womack's recommendations, resulting from scores of conferences and studies with regional highway engineers and city officials, call for freeway construction costing $49,300,000. It is estimated that actual construction of the freeways here won't start for at least four years. Meanwhile, following final adoption of the routes by the state, property owners will be notified and negotiations will begin, principally along Junipero Serra.

Womack's recommendations call for an eight-lane, 6.5 miles freeway on Junipero Serra, running from two-tenths of a mile south of San Bruno avenue, San Bruno, to Alemany boulevard, connecting there to the proposed route of the Southern Freeway in San Francisco. The recommended Serra route swings to the west of Winston Manor between Arroyo drive and Chinese Cemetery road. Between Pierce street in Daly City and the Lake Merced Golf and Country Club the route would run east of Junipero Serra on a line recommended by county and Daly City officials. Several businesses will be removed in this routing and a few older homes also will be uprooted. Exact number, however, has not been revealed on the highway maps to date.

As per city recommendation, the Serra route immediately (Continued on Page 1) north of Broadmoor Shopping Center would be on the west side, fronting the golf course, and connecting to the adopted freeway route at Orisaba avenue in San Francisco.

The four-lane lateral from Serra to Skyline, by Womack's recommendation, would be 1.3 miles in length, have provisions for six lanes, and wouldn't uproot a single home in St. Francis Heights, Westlake Knolls, or any part of Westlake. Paecl and Dennis stressed this factor at the council meeting.

Hupf said the lateral's link to Skyline would run south of Clarinda avenue in St. Francis Heights, follow Santa Rita and hit the tip of Manzanita towards Higgate drive which is parallel to Skyline. McKeon (Continued on Page 2)

Council Actions Monday Night:

The city council's regular meeting Monday night had a short agenda. Besides major decisions, the council:

1. Set May 9 for public hearing on small Nolan annexation in $75 Lot Homestead.

2. Closed public hearings on C-1 to R-3 (apartments) rezoning on two Doelger parcels south of Southgate avenue and along the Ocean Shore right-of-way, and R-1 to R-3 requested change for Devincenzi apartments on 12 lots in hillside area, Scenic Way and Templeton avenue.

3. Closed hearing on changes in personnel rules regarding classified employees assigned other jobs on temporary basis.

4. Ordered more discussion with State Highway Division and Doelger on proposed interchange at Edgemar freeway and Westlake Unit 11. Access from Unit 11 to the freeway is the primary concern.

5. Approved overtime pay for city electrician as requested by acting City Engineer Bill Chapman.

6. Granted dance permit to Byzantine Society to conduct dance at Westlake auditorium May 21.

7. Reviewed letter from Rapid Transit District announcing public briefing on Peninsula transit plans April 6 at South San Francisco.

Dee Van Nest Quits As City Parks Chief

Dee R. Van Nest, director of Daly City's parks and recreation department the past 3½ years, Monday night submitted his letter of resignation to the council.

Van Nest has accepted a higher-pay assignment at Bellflower, a newly incorporated city of 55,000, situated 14 miles from Long Beach, California.

The resignation came as no surprise. Van Nest said he had been looking for a better job "with more of a challenge and professional opportunities." His letter of intent was forwarded to City Manager Edward Frank last Friday.

Mayor Edward Dennis said Monday night approved construction of a new main building and auto shop at Jefferson High and rehabilitation of other buildings at a total cost of more than $1 million.

Approval by the State School Planning division and the State Department of Finance is needed if the project is to be finalized. It is estimated that actual work is, at least two years away.

Plans came about after a study of statistics presented by Knorr-Elliott, Architects, and opinions of Alfred H. Glantz and James H. Orsburn of the State School Planning Division and other local and state agencies consulted by the Jefferson district.

'Home Improvement Week' Authorized By City Council

Daly City councilmen Monday night called for a proclamation setting aside April 20-27 for annual "Home Improvement Week" here.

The council allocated $100 toward this event, sharing its sponsorship with the Chamber of Commerce.

Residents will be encouraged to participate in the Spring special. Merchants will offer top bargains during the week-long feature.

Marchbanks Publications newspapers, the Westlake Times and The Record, will emphasize Home Improvement Week with special sections on merchant offerings.

Council Makes Transfers To Meet Expenses

Paving the way for even more crucial budget balancing decisions, the city council Monday night by separate resolutions transferred almost $20,000 in unappropriated surplus funds to pay for items and projects that exceeded the adopted budget and could not be financed without official "amending" action.

LAST WHISTLE IN RAILROAD CONTROVERSY?

City Attorney Paul Hupf told Daly City councilmen Monday night that the last whistle has just about blown in the Ocean Shore Railroad right-of-way controversy.

Hupf said an opinion filed March 28 by the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco affirmed the judgment of the trial court (San Mateo County Superior Court), holding that the owners of the long-defunct railroad no longer legally are entitled to ownership of the hump-like, eyesore land between Southgate and South Mayfair avenues in Westlake.

Ocean Shore officials initiated the litigation about 10 years ago against the city, Doelger and the Catholic church archdiocese, claiming the railroad corporation still maintained ownership of the hilly, unused strip of land.

The three defendants (city, church and Doelger) argued that the property should revert to the adjacent property owners due to its "non-use" by the railroad firm.

Hupf said Ocean Shore has about 60 days to make appeal for a new hearing or the verdict will be final. The State Supreme Court and the U. S. Supreme Court are the only and ultimate avenues open to the Ocean Shore lawyers.

The opinion of the District Court, signed by Justice Matthew Tobriner, wound up with the statement: "We submit that the time has come for the sounding of the last whistle. We affirm the judgment of the lower court."

The opinion ludicrously noted that the paperweight volume of court testimony exceeded the old railroad's volume of business during its active period, Hupf explained.

Falling Lumber Injures Man Here

John M. Miller, 51, 138 Holloway avenue, San Francisco, was injured at Stockton Lumber Company Tuesday afternoon when a load of plywood fell on his leg.

Officer Art Liphare said a doctor splinted Miller's leg at the scene before M&D Ambulance transported him to St. Luke's Hospital.

HOUSEWIFE FOUND WITH MARIJUANA

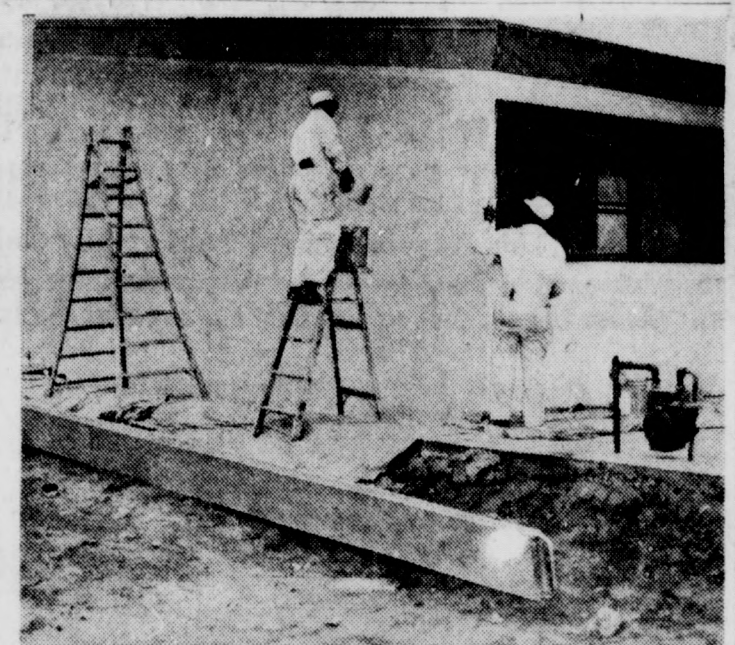

Mrs. Dolores May Lyman, 22, 6231 Mission street, was arrested Monday evening after local authorities assertedly found three boxes of marijuana in her home.

Police had returned to the scene after her husband William had been jailed by San Francisco police. The authorities had a search warrant to find materials that her husband may have had in his possession as a robbery suspect.

Instead they found the packets of marijuana and arrested the 4 foot 11 inch woman on charges of possessing narcotics. Taking part in the search were Officer Matthew Murray and Sergeant David Hansen, Daly City; Assistant District Attorney for San Mateo County, Walter Harrington; Inspectors Milt Minelien and N. John Schiavo, of the County Sheriff's Office; and San Francisco inspectors Tim Casey and Charles Sutton.

Mrs. Lyman, who gave her occupation as a general office worker, met the authorities outside and ushered them into the house. They showed her a

State Calls Bids For Mission Street $120,000 Project

The State Division of Highways in Sacramento this week called for bids on the redevelopment of Daly City's Mission street—an estimated $120,000 project.

Bids will be opened in the state capital on April 27. The contract will include removal of the old railroad tracks, construction of median islands, resurfacing, and installation of traffic signals, between Shakespear and Valley streets.

Total money available for the work includes $100,000 in state highway funds. An estimated $12,651 will come from San Francisco, and about $6700 is Daly City's contribution.

Son Finds Mom, 69, On Floor--There 9 Hours

An elderly woman fell on her basement floor and apparently could not rise to summon assistance, lying there almost nine hours last Friday, according to Daly City police.

Josephine Malatesta, 69, 115 East Vista avenue, was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by M&D ambulance for a complete examination. Her son, Louis, 49, said he found his mother lying on the basement floor at 8 p.m. She had fallen at 11 a.m. He said she had a past record of diabetes and this weakness may have been the cause of the fall.

Statistics Aired

HOSPITAL STUDY COMMITTEE EXPECTS ELECTION IN 1961

Dr. Harold D. Choche, County Health Department Director, told the North County Hospital District Committee that this end of San Mateo County has a sufficiently good financial base for a major hospital project.

Choche's comments came at last week's study meeting in Daly City. He showed that Sequoia Hospital District, formed in 1947, had an assessed valuation of $48,800,000. That same year the Peninsula Hospital District was formed with an assessed valuation of $80,000,000.

The North County area, including the Jefferson High School District and South San Francisco Unified School District, has an assessed valuation of $159,000,000. Even taking out the Laguna Salada Elementary School District valuation of $16,000,000, if Pacifica were not to be a part of the plan, the North County would still have $143,300,000.

Dr. Choche stated, "The assessed valuation here is three times what Sequoia had, and twice the amount of Peninsula, even discounting the Pacifica valuation. My guess is that you would have enough for an assessment district, but keep in mind that costs between 1947 and 1960 are a bit different," he qualified.

John Derry, assistant chief of the State Bureau of Hospitals, then said, "You will have one foot in the door towards Hill-Burton Act financing if this area can be declared eligible for a hospital district because of needs and growth."

The Hill-Burton Act is federal legislation enacted in 1945 which allows local, state and federal agencies all to contribute not more than 1/3 toward construction of a hospital.

Derry added that San Mateo County's priority for the Hill-Burton Act is "very low be-

Mission Street Man Hospitalized

Robert Lee Boess, 28, 6149-A Mission street, was taken to Community Hospital by M&D Ambulance Sunday afternoon, suffering from shock and chills, apparently the aftermath of a recent operation.

Mrs. Helen Boess, 20, stopped Officer Ralph Warren, requesting his aid. Warren and Sergeant Jerry Galindo went to the Boess' home where they found Robert and called for an ambulance.

search warrant and she consented to their going through belongings.

Inspector Casey lifted a mattress on Mrs. Lyman's four-year-old daughter's bed and found a packet marked "Bill" Lyman. The packet, wrapped in a March 26, 1960 newspaper, was found between the mattress and bed spring.

Minehan discovered two other packets near the foot of the double bed belonging to the Lyman's. When Mrs. Lyman entered the room and police pointed out the packets she made a "loud, audible gasp." Asked if she knew what the box contained she said, "It's marijuana, I guess."

Later she told Sergeant Hansen she "thought it was marijuana" but denied knowing that it was in her room. She did say the outside box, from a downtown store, was hers. She also said she made the bed every day and changed the bedding every Saturday.

without a hospital of their own."

Chairman of the committee Leo J. Ryan, a South San Francisco councilman, said the board asked Dr. Cho, Derry, and Daniel Koshland, chairman of the board of the Peninsula Hospital District, to come in order to receive professional advice. "We are gathering facts to see whether or not an election is feasible. The recommendations will go before the three mayors involved (Daly City's Edward Dennis, Pacifica's Jean Fassler and South City's Andrew Rocca)."

Dr. Marcus said that Daly City has the lion's share of the 85 practicing physicians. There are 45 here, 30 in South San Francisco and 10 in Pacifica, according to the initial survey conducted last year.

It is our feeling that a hospital should not be more than five minutes from any resident in this district," Marcus added. Committee member Stanley P. Brown, a businessman from Broadmoor Village, noted, "Contrary to most beliefs, a hospital is attended by people who walk in under their own power and are not emergency treatment cases."

The 20 30-acre hospital will take at least five years before it becomes a real construction, Koshland estimates. He declared that Sequoia district home owners pay a total of $10 each a year for hospital support.

Derry said a letter should be sent to the State Bureau of Hospitals asking for a study of this area. "We won't be able to get it before January of 1961 but I will continue to work with you before that time."

Ryan wondered when the committee should try to go for an election, if at all, and Derry remarked, "July, 1961."

A majority vote is needed in order to establish a hospital district, but a two-thirds majority is needed for a bond issue. The majority vote is merely for the formation of a district, Ryan noted.

demolition of the main building and auto shop building and construction of new facilities at these sites. Rehabilitation calls for work at the Little Theater (creating three classrooms), the building which currently houses electricity and photography classes, and reducing the size of the metal shop and placing mechanical drawing in this section.

The gymnasium, which was designed for a school housing 700 students, must be master planned to accommodate 1500 enrollment. The cost of this master planning would be in excess of $100,000. Superintendent Ed Morgan said. He noted the entire project "is an almost certainty to surpass $1 million."

Morgan told trustees, "I am confident that the state officials will concur with your recommendations."

The superintendent stated that the construction would not hamper the learning process as students could be housed in the main building while other buildings are being rehabilitated and then switched over when the main building is being constructed. He also noted, that if necessary, a "juggling" of boundary lines would take care of any excess students who couldn't be housed during construction.

$142 BAIL FOR DRUNK ARREST HERE

W. J. Ramsey, 30, 179 Hillcrest drive, was arrested for being drunk in a public place Saturday morning. His total bail was set at $142.25 when it was learned he had a number of traffic warrants in San Bruno, San Francisco and Daly City.

Officer Art Linhares received a call from Duffy's Corner, a tavern, that a patron was causing a disturbance. When Linhares arrived he found the truck driver arguing with the bartender. Linhares said Ramsey was "very abusive and aggressive toward me." Force was used to handcuff Ramsey and bring him to the station.

A check with other police authorities showed outstanding warrants in his name. Ramsey is to appear in municipal court next week.

Economists estimate we will need nearly twice as much energy by 1975 as we use at present, points out the National Automobile Club. Much of this future power will come from petroleum.

FREEWAY

Company has only a few foundations in this affected area. Hupf said, and the state favors this modified routing as requested by Daly City officials who said state-proposed Route 2 or Route 1 would have taken more homes — both in St. Francis Heights and Westlake Knolls.

Hupf explained that once final state adoption of the routes is made, then maps showing the freeway's precise course would be made available to the council for further negotiations with the state on interchanges, elevations, grade separations, etc.

The city attorney, answering an inquiry of Councilman Bob St. Clair, said he wasn't sure how close the Serra freeway would come to the emergency hospital. Hupf said he had asked the State Commission to try to avoid removal of the hospital.

St. Clair also cited McKee's "cooperation in stopping construction south of Clarinada, as we asked him in working for a modified routing to avoid other homes."

He added the council should apprise McKee of all freeway actions so as not to additionally slow down McKee's construction in St. Francis Heights south of the intended freeway route.

David Plyer, a St. Francis Heights resident, and Ray Charette, Mission street businessman, both queried the council on its freeway recommendations. Plyer was assured by Dennis that no existing homes in St. Francis Heights would be disrupted, and by Pacelli that discussion of interchange locations and specifications of the freeway "are of equally great concern to the council."

Charette questioned the freeway routing along Junipero Serra, asking why the council preferred an east-side routing.

Dee is a graduate of Los Angeles State College and holds a degree in recreation administration. His wife, Ruth, a graduate of UCLA, is an elementary school teacher. Lately, she has worked in the Pacifica school system. They have one son, Jeffrey, 7.

Van Nest's salary here was $691 a month or $8292 a year. In Bellflower his top salary step will be $9400.

The council met in personnel session after Monday's open meeting to discuss a successor. Due to the budget predicament, it is possible that a new department head may not be selected for some time.

LAW IN ACTION

CREDIT CARDS

Few of us realize how many contracts we make and have to live up to. The recent expansion of credit cards illustrates how widely used contracts are in modern life and business.

A credit card is a contract. The fine print on the card and on your application sets out the contractual duties you assumed.

Quite likely you will find one or more credit cards in your wallet for gasoline, restaurants, stores, and the like, or an "open end" credit card that entitles you to buy in various places.

Credit cards identify you for the purposes of charging what you buy. You can carry less cash in your pocket, and you get a bill each month instead.

But beware. Don't let your credit card fall into the wrong hands.

First, if you lose your card, report the loss at once. Follow with a letter to the credit card company to make sure. This will ease and perhaps nullify your responsibilities for charges run up on your card after you report its loss.

As a rule, credit card companies do not make you pay for charges made before you report the card's loss. But they can—if they want to under the terms you signed.

Most credit cards call on you to pay each month for all the charges billed to you. If you don't pay, the card company can recall or cancel your card. Recently new "open end" credit cards allow you to buy at many stores and to pay interest for the unpaid balance after a certain length of time.

A credit card, like any other contract, calls for the prudent owner to know his duties and rights, and make his plans accordingly.

Supt. Barrett Quits Brisbane Schools' Post

The resignation of its superintendent-principal and a search for a new administrator was announced today by Brisbane Elementary School District through its clerk, Mrs. Margaret M. Galten.

Lois J. Barrett, superintendent of the district since July, 1958, and principal of the Brisbane School for a longer period, has submitted her resignation as district administrator and principal to the Brisbane governing board, which accepted the same.

Mrs. Barrett has requested a year's leave of absence after which she will return to the district to assume her basic status as a tenure teacher.

The office of the San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools has been requested to establish a screening procedure for applicants to replace Mrs. Barrett. James R. Tormey, County Superintendent of Schools, announced that the Screening Committee would include representatives from two other counties in the Bay Area plus a superintendent from one of the districts of San Mateo County.

Job specifications have been sent to the major administrative training institutions and placement agencies, according to Tormey. Applicants from within San Mateo County should request that their papers be sent to Dr. B. C. Curry, Office of the County Superintendent of Schools, 538 Jefferson, Redwood City. Final application date for the position is April 22.

Requirements for the position include teaching experience in grades K through 8, administrative experience at the principalship elementary school level or district administration

VISTA GRANDE SCHOOL HIT BY VANDALS

Louise Bostwick, principal of Vista Grande School, Thiers and Wyandotte streets, told Policeman David Johnstone that vandals broke into the school over the weekend.

The culprits gained entrance by breaking a window and unlatching the inside lock. They ransacked the principal's desk but didn't take anything from it. They did take three reams of copy paper, valued at $6, a small magnifying glass, worth $5, and two dozen ice cream bars from the refrigerator, worth $1.20.

Plumber Here Is Charged With Hold-ups

William M. Lyman, 27, 6231 Mission street, was arrested on armed robbery charges by San Francisco police inspectors Ted Lusher and George Lacau, Sunday at 12:50 a.m.

The two inspectors were aided in the arrest by Sergeant Rico Benedetti and Officer Robert Stables who went to Lyman's home with them.

Lyman, a plumber, was identified by Vera Counts, 20 Macdonald street, Bayshore City, as the man who held up a money messenger from the 7 Mile House in Bayshore City with a shotgun. Her identification was from a picture from SFPD files.

Lyman is also a suspect in a number of robberies dating back the past three months. These include hold-ups at the Joker Club, Caribbean Room, Tower Lodge and Rosso's Drug Store, all in San Francisco.

experience. In addition, the candidate must hold an administrative credential valid at the elementary school level.

Three More Local Rapid Transit Meets

Three additional public meetings have been scheduled during April in San Mateo County to provide residents with a report on planning of the proposed rail rapid transit system now being designed for the Bay Area.

The meetings will be held on April 4 at Half Moon Bay, April 6 at South San Francisco, and April 7 at San Mateo.

The meetings will be held on April 4 at Half Moon Bay, April 6 at South San Francisco, and April 7 at San Mateo.

Presenting the special engineering progress reports will be top officials and consulting engineers of the five-county Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Among them will be San Mateo County's three members on the District board of directors, Adolph J. Bertini of Daly City, Thomas W. Casey Jr. of San Mateo, and Joseph G. Hunter of Burlingame.

The engineers will outline preliminary plans for the proposed 125-mile rapid transit system, which now are approximately 80 per cent completed. Voters next November are scheduled to vote on a bond issue to finance construction of the five-county rail network.

A schedule of the San Mateo County meetings, all of which will begin at 8 p.m., is as follows:

Monday, April 4, Half Moon Bay Union High School Auditorium, Kelly avenue; Wednesday, April 6, South San Francisco Senior High School Cafeteria, 400 B street; Thursday, April 7, San Mateo, Hillsdale High School Little Theater, 31st avenue and Del Norte.

Autos Towing Trailers Can't Exceed 45 mph

The speed limit for automobiles towing trailers on public streets and highways is 45 miles per hour and this limit will be strictly enforced, reports the California Highway Patrol.

The speed limit applies to all passenger cars regardless of weight and to commercial vehicles weighing less than 4,000 pounds when towing any trailer coach, trailer, semi-trailer, or other type vehicle.

Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the patrol, noted that the 45 mile per hour limit is a fixed maximum and not a "prima facie" limit.

"This simply means that such motorist who exceed 45 miles per hour while towing a trailer is in violation of the California vehicle code," Crittenden declared. "He will not be able to plead that existing conditions made it safe for him to exceed that speed."

Crittenden noted that the vehicle code requires motorists drawing trailers to have proper lighting, approved connections between the car and the trailer, and adequate rear-view mirrors.

"More detailed information concerning the rules and regulations governing towing of trailers may be obtained from any office of the California Highway Patrol," the commissioner said.

JUHS Seeks Federal Funds

High school trustees, on recommendation of Director of Instruction Dr. John Ivan, Monday night approved seeking federal monies to strengthen the district's counseling and testing programs.

Under the National Defense Education Act of 1958, school districts can apply to the state for federal funds. Jefferson High District is requesting $16,589 this year in federal assistance.

Approximately one half of the federal grant will be used to pay the salaries of a part-time IBM statistician and a clerk who will specialize in testing and processing of data to help determine student abilities, aptitudes and placement.

SANDRA Gonzales, theme girl for Home Improvement Week, April 20 through 27, notifies Daly City residents to be stylish for the fall and winter months by improving their homes this spring. Miss Gonzales, 20, 5 San Diego avenue, attends business college. She is a graduate of Jefferson High.

Officer Tom Culley responded to Parkview and San Diego avenues after receiving a call about a juvenile disturbance. He found Code with a belt in his hands, threatening the juveniles.

Code told Culley the youths had threatened him first. Culley said the age of the juveniles at the scene was between 12 and 14 years old and felt it was unlikely that they gave such a challenge. Culley ordered Code to leave the scene.

The label packing operator refused and then again refused when Culley ordered him into the police car. He allegedly became abusive and was handcuffed and placed in the patrol car. Code was released on $26.25 bail.

By ROY HURLBERT

ONE CITY councilman Monday night hit the nail on the head when he mused that Daly City is a good training ground for department heads.

The crack came on the heels of the politely worded resignation of Dee Van Nest, Bellflower-bound parks and recreation boss.

Like Otis Calhoun, who also resigned rather politely, Dee will be working for a bigger entity, with more pay, security and organization.

Bellflower, close to Long Beach, has a city manager-city council arrangement. But only one city commission—planners.

Van Nest said he wanted more of a challenge and of course, more job stability.

WHO DID the journeyman's work for Daly City on the freeway?

Paul Hupf, a city attorney who does a thorough job on anything.

When the city council needs competent counsel, Paul comes through.

It's fortunate Daly City has an individual of his caliber connected with its government.

OLD-TIMERS and newer residents alike can't figure the April 12 city council race. Only three candidates and two jobs up for grabs.

The veteran political crowd says last time the field was so few in number was in '44 when four ran for two openings.

By contrast, in '58 there were 11 candidates for three slots. Two of the three incumbents fell by the wayside two years back.

ACTING City Engineer Bill Chapman, a near ringer for Pat Boone, has inherited heavy duty. This week, for instance, Bill had the council session Monday night, the planning commission meeting Tuesday, and a personnel board conclave Wednesday.

Mrs. C. calls Bill "The Stranger" at their St. Francis Heights home.

THOSE WHO attended the Veteran Firemen's Association get-together Saturday discussed politics more than by-gone days. All meetings of any size these days are populated with those who have the municipal election foremost in their minds.

The campaigning, as per tradition, has reached the stage where tearing down the other guy's signs is being reported.

In nine out of ten instances, workers for certain candidates get overzealous and resort to all kinds of unethical tactics. Not just here, either.

That's what makes American politics so interesting?

ED FRANK, Daly City's new administrative chief, long has contended that schools and cities have similar responsibilities.

That's one reason Frank is a member of the Citizens Advisory Commission to the California state Joint Interim Committee on Public Education.

The citizens group numbers 27 and Frank is the only city administrator on this committee. It is broken down into five separate units. Ed's associate in the curriculum study group is Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, former president of Cal.

COUNCIL attendance Monday night wasn't bad. But it's sad that strong attendance doesn't sustain itself. Citizens get as much out of government as they put into it. Lack of interest in Daly City Hall actions is traditional. If it weren't for elections, there would be more cobwebs on the Chamber seats.

THE "BIGGEST" news at the high school district meeting Monday evening broke after the audience was long gone.

Board secretary Dorothy Duncan wheeled in a sizeable cake—a birthday surprise for District Supt. Ed Morgan. Morgan is at the age where you keep the candles at a minimum.

SHOULD the tag "Jefferson Union High School District" be changed?

Coastside Jim Cooper jokingly (?) suggested renaming the district "Pacifica" in a board tete-a-tete this week. There were no seconds.

But it is confusing. With Jefferson High and Jefferson Elementary districts here, there are some mixups in mail and notification.

Why not Daly City-Colma Elementary School District?

ED MORGAN, mentioned above, renewed an old acquaintance at the school board meeting Monday. Trustees hired teacher Harry J. McDevitt for the industrial arts department at Oceana High School (Sharp Park eventually).

Morgan and McDevitt were students together at SF State in 1936. Harry quit to enter private business. Two years ago McDevitt went back and got his teaching credential at SF State. He's now teaching in Hayward across the pond.

PRIORITY and red tape taken for granted, Jefferson High won't get its new look (reconstruction) for at least three years.

The administration hasn't been passive on this project, however. It's just that unique endeavors of this nature take much planning—and money. More than $1 million is the estimate to modernize Jeff.

JUNE "moving in" date is guessed for new Westlake library, south side of Southgate avenue adjacent to postoffice and motor vehicle headquarters. The $143,000 project was designed by Architect John Gioe, a Westlake resident.

DC Sailor Sees Hawaii Volcano Erupt

HILO, Hawaii, March 21 — One of California's first families to receive an authentic piece of lava from Hawaii's spectacular Kilauea Iki volcanic eruption will be Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Gates of 27 Lake Vista avenue, Daly City.

Their son, Richard, who is serving aboard the Pacific Fleet radar picket escort vessel USS Lansing visited the spot yesterday, and is mailing samples of lava to his parents this month.

Gates, a seaman apprentice with only three months of active service, arrived here with his ship on March 18 and says he is impressed with Hawaii.

"I've seen some pretty spectacular things where I come from," said Gates, "for example the Redwoods."

"But it's hard to beat a volcanic eruption. It has everything. Color, suspense, and in some cases even a tragic ending." The tragic ending Gates spoke of was the destruction of Kapoho, a small village which laid in the path of the lava as it flowed to the ocean.

SSF Women Enthused By Show Turnout

"The members of the South San Francisco Woman's Club are most gratified at the response of our community to our recent Art and Craft Exhibit which presented the creative works of our artistic residents," says Mrs. William Cottenham, president. "Because of their gracious response there were about 40 artists whose entries were viewed by over 200 visitors."

The Art and Craft exhibit, the first of its kind presented by the Woman's Club, was presented free of charge and showed that South San Francisco residents are aware of the satisfaction derived from self-expression since there were entries in a variety of mediums—pencil sketches, oil paintings, jewelry, driftwood pins, ceramics, artistic photographs, mosaics, hand-made musical instruments and other forms of creative ability.

The many requests that were made for the exhibit to become an annual affair will be taken under consideration by members of the South San Francisco Woman's Club.

TEEN TALK

By Joe Bavaresco

Hi Kids:

This week I will tell you of a young girl who has a problem, a skin problem. It's a problem a lot of teenagers have today.

This week I received a letter from a 15-year-old girl with a familiar problem. Her face and back started breaking out and her friends told her they were too embarrassed to go out with her. Her boy friend stopped calling on her and she became very shy and inhibited.

She was afraid to meet people because of her appearance. She refused all blind dates because she was sure the boys would also be ashamed of the blemishes on her face. I received four letters in two weeks from people with this same problem.

To be able to answer these letters with some authority, I went to visit a friend of mine who is a skin doctor. He tells me that many people think it's a change of blood which causes teenagers faces to break out, but this is hog wash.

It has much to do with your diet and your nervous system. In other words, we all have oil glands but during our teenage years these oil glands are very, very active, more active than any other time in our lives.

Our diet has a lot to do with glands. So if you eat foods, the oil goes directly to these glands. Most kids like french fries and coke. But, the grease in the french fries breaks your face out like a Christmas tree. Keep away from fried foods. Ask your mom to broil your foods. Also try not to eat too much candy or sweets. All these things tend to irritate these glands.

Another thing, salt and carbonated drinks also break out your face. Too much salt on your food can also irritate skin. But one of the big irritators is carbonation, or the bubbles in soda. Learn to refuse carbonated drinks. It's easy to say stop eating all these delicious, tempting foods, but it will be for your own benefit.

I mentioned "nervous system." By that I mean, teenagers have a lot to worry about, such as school, what you want to do for your life's work, are you a social success, or can you go to college. Boys have the service to think over. Should he wait for the draft or enlist.

All these worries also can cause your skin to break out. When you have worries like these, discuss them with an adult. Sometimes you don't want to worry your parents so if you feel you can't discuss it with your folks, discuss your problems with your pastor or a teacher who you can talk with freely.

Believe me, a teacher always is happy to help his or her students with their personal problems. It's only when you keep these worries all bottled up that you become nervous, and when you become nervous your face will break out. When you discuss your problems with someone, it lightens your burden and the adult you discuss your problems with can help you make a decision.

There are medications on the market but beware because some of these can be harmful, so check with your doctor before using any of them. Medications cover up the blemishes, but they also clog up your skin pores. So keep away from too many medications. Keep your skin clean by washing your face with soap and water three or four times a day.

Getting back to the 15-year-old girl who lost her boy friend and started losing her girl friends because of her skin condition. All I can say is if you have friends like that, you don't need enemies. If any of you have friends whose faces have blemishes, don't remind them of it. You can hurt their feelings so very much, so be kind. Don't stab a friend where there is a wound already. If you have a skin problem, try the advice in this column. I'm sure it will help.

Thought For The Week: "They too fight, who sit and wait." "Think about it."

Watch Mr. Bavaresco every Wednesday at 1:30 p.m., channel 7, on Bright and Easy, for advice on teenage problems. If you would like to have Mr. Bavaresco as a guest speaker for your next function, write to:

Joe Bavaresco
Camp Meeker, Calif.

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

My friends and I are asking you to defend all teenage girls. Our parents don't like our short skirts. How can we convince our parents it's the style? As you know, we wear our skirts at knee length. On behalf of every girl in the country, please defend us.

Misses Short Skirts

I am on your side. I think they are very stylish and since it is definitely the style, I firmly agree with you. You should wear any style that is accepted by the rest of the kids. If your parents are upset, remind them of the early 1940's when skirts were even shorter. Then in the early 1950's, skirts were down almost to the ankles. So really, adults have no right to comment. They were told their styles were bad also. Adults have been cutting down the younger generation for thousands of years and will probably continue for thousands more. All you can do is to grin and bear it, or grin and wear it!

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

My mother dresses and acts like a teenager. She tries to join my friends and me everywhere, and my friends don't like it and it embarrasses me. She wants to be a part of everything we do. What can I do? What can I say to her? Help me!

Miss Embarrassed

Your mother sounds as if she is afraid of growing old. It's too bad you must suffer through this. If you tell her how you feel, you might hurt her feelings. It could be she is trying to make you feel your mom is a pal rather than a mother. It is true; she should be told that the kids like her, but don't want her hanging around all the time. Some mothers have the idea they must be a pal to their teenage youngsters. This is only an excuse for acting like a teenager. Teenagers have enough pals, they want parents! Sure, they want parents who are enjoyable and fun, but kids also want to respect their parents. "Parents"—you were teenagers once already. Now try being parents. Miss Embarrassed, give this column to your mom to read. It might hit home, I hope yours.

Westlake 1st Grade Presents "Musical Fun" For Parents

"Musical Fun," a program of musical games, was presented to the parents of Mrs. Julia Wilson's first grade class at Westlake School. The program included singing, playing rhythm band instruments, and dancing.

Some of the youngsters, using pony heads which they made, galloped around in a ring to the music of "The Little Grey Pony." The pony ring then became the train track. A train choo-chooed around the track to the music of "The Train Comes Along," "Down at the Station," and "The Little Red Caboose."

Train engineer was Kevin Dunne with George Dexter, Fred Sciancalore, Stephen Vick and Alan MacDougall as the boxcars and David Colburn as the Little Red Caboose.

The final of the program was a visit to the zoo to see the monkey. Groups of three youngsters imitated an original monkey motion.

W'lake Bowl Nursery Hits New Milestone

After being open for 15 months, the nursery at Swanson's Westlake Bowl yesterday received its 10,000th child. At 9:33 a.m., Mrs. Virginia Styckel of 175 Del Prado drive in Daly City brought Gina, age 4 years, to Mrs. Davis, custodian of the children, and thereby won a Lady Brunswick ball for herself and a $25 Savings Bond for her daughter.

During the period the nursery has been in operation, children from two weeks old and up have been left with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Rogers while the mothers bowl. See Doctor Before Taking A Vacation

In India it's called Delhi belly. In Egypt, it's gippy tummy. In Mexico it's known as Montezuma's revenge. The medical profession calls it the diarrhea of city-bred travelers. The unhappy victim is likely to call it a heck of a way to spend a vacation.

If you're taking off for unfamiliar places, your first precaution should be a visit to your doctor. He can give you a medicine to be taken regularly while you're away. Follow his directions and you stand an 80 per cent chance of avoiding any trouble. If Montezuma's revenge strikes anyway, you'll have only a mild attack and get over it much faster.

While you're away, be particularly careful about the water you drink. Some motels and inns have a notice over the bathroom basin warning that water from the faucets should not be used for drinking. You'll be supplied with a carafe of water that is safe to drink. If the warning is missing, just imagine it's there. It should be.

While you're sight-seeing or in transit, stick to bottled drinks. We've had no trouble remembering this one, ever since we saw a large fly splashing happily around in an open bowl of lemonade on the counter of a backwoods diner.

Anything made with cream, custard, or mayonnaise should be kept refrigerated right up to the minute before it's used. Some eating places aren't sold on the need for refrigerating such perishable goodies. So if you're not sure, pass them up. Bon voyage!

Second Graders Of Colma School Make Three Trips

The term "Community Helpers" is one of vivid reality to second grade boys and girls of Colma K-6 School. This is the result of personal observation they experienced when they visited the Kilpatrick Baking Company in San Francisco, the Sun Valley Dairy farm in Linda Mar, and the Sun Valley Dairy processing plant in San Francisco. The classes of Jean Fletcher and Pat Dimond participated in this sequence of tours which supplemented their classroom studies.

Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Tardelli, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Martinez, Mrs. Giannini, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Menconi, Mrs. Pool, and Mrs. Middleton were interested mothers who accompanied the children on these tours.

LAW IN ACTION

SEIZURE OF EVIDENCE

The power on crime by the forces of law goes on day and night. Finding facts that will stand up in court is a hard, tedious work, without which catching crooks is of no avail.

From time to time the officers ask for new laws to meet new conditions.

Until a few years ago, for example, no judge could lawfully issue a search warrant to get evidence of a crime, such as hair, fingerprints, and the like. Under a new law a judge may do so.

For with the inroads of crime, we seek and find advances in crime detection. Among other things, the warrant may order an officer to search for and get any evidence which tends to show that someone has done a serious crime.

Since no judge himself can or should keep such evidence, the officer—say the sheriff or police chief—may keep it subject to court order. This is common sense, but it is important for the law to name the keepers of evidence and hold them responsible.

Again, a judge may still examine witnesses before he issues a warrant, but he no longer needs to under the law. In a large city, judges may issue thousands of warrants in a short time, and cannot well go into details with witnesses the way the police can. Still, the judge can, any time he wants to. In this, the new law just codifies and makes uniform the present practice.

The power to search places and seize evidence is rightly safeguarded. So far as can be, the law aims to protect citizens from unlawful search and seizure, yet not to hamper law officers in catching criminals.

Please Mail Easter Seal Checks Early!

More than 12,000 handicapped persons in San Mateo County were united today in one plea to the 400,000 citizens of the county . . . "Please help us," which is the appeal slogan of the 1960 Easter Seal Drive. Early mailing of your Easter Seal check will be appreciated greatly, it was announced.

Vincent Murphy, Daly City postmaster and area chairman of the drive, declared that success is a "must" for this drive, which provides the funds to continue operation of the Rehabilitation and Research Center at 1764 Marco Polo way, Burlingame, as well as all of the other Easter Seal activities on behalf of the crippled children and adults of San Mateo County.

"The Crippled Children and Adults Society is often the 'last hope' for the physically handicapped," Murphy said today, "and hundreds of children and adults have been given a completely new outlook on life through this fine facility."

Murphy pointed out that while some of the funds go into research that the major part of it is used for direct medical care, therapy and other rehabilitation services that the handicapped in our county need right now. "The beauty of this work," he said, "is that you can visit the Center any day and see the great work the therapists are doing for people

Better Business Bureau Warns About Impostors

Reports have been received by the Better Business Bureau which indicate that persons are masquerading as members of the Bureau staff.

In one case, a retired police officer reported that an unidentified man claiming to be from the BBB, had solicited his neighbors for personal information concerning himself.

In another case, a retail store reported phone calls after 8 p.m. stating: "This is Mr. X of the Better Business Bureau. We have had too many complaints about you and want to see your books."

It happens that neither of these procedures are those of the Better Business Bureau, and the work is that of impostors. Anyone being phoned or interviewed by an unknown alleged BBB staff member should demand positive identification. The Better Business Bureau phone number is SUtter 1-3822.

of every age, creed or color."

Special emphasis is placed on the Easter Seal Sheltered Workshop where physically handicapped people are taught to be self supporting through learning new skills. Local industrial firms aid this part of the work by providing sub-contracts with the Society for electronics, printing and other types of work.

Any amount desired may be sent to pay for the Easter Seal which we mailed out by volunteers at the Society's Center.

Indian Varsity, B's Lose, C's Get Second Swim Win

Jefferson's C swimmers splashed to a 50-9 win over Burlingame last Thursday, while the varsity lost, 57-24, and the B's were swamped, 49-10. The three teams fared the same against San Mateo a week earlier, the C's being the only victor.

Dave Iwahashi led the C's winning performance with 37.2 in the 50-yard breast stroke. He was also on the quick-winning medley relay team of Ken Kalieki, Dan Craig and Carl Navarro which swam to a 2:20 win.

Coach Norm Cady also had good words for Dick Gotelli's 34.3 backstroke clocking. Craig's 50-yard butterfly in 36.5, and Dale Bard's 50-yard freestyle in 29.1 and 100 freestyle in 1:08.1.

The freestyle relayers who took first with a 2:04.5 were Mike O'Campo, Jerry Hess, Kalieki and Gotelli.

Varsity Track Teams Here Open With Wins

Watt Misses Twelve But Jeff Prevails

Jeff Coach Bob Watt was without 12 of his track stars, yet the varsity managed to pull out a 61½-51½ victory at the Hillsdale oval last Friday.

John Margaroni was the only double winner for the Indians, recording a 23.8 in the 220 and tying with Pat Bell for the broadjump No. 1 spot at 18-9. The flashing feet of Anibal Davila also gave rise for applause though the youngster lost out by two feet.

Davila sprinted the last 220 yards to close what had been a distant 30-yard lead to two feet. His mile timing of 4:46.6 was just late for first place.

Hillsdale's B's took a 72½-49½ decision from Jeff though the work of Willie White couldn't be overlooked. White broke the B's school record in the 120 low hurdles by clocking 14.3. On his heels was Sam Ennon, 14.4, who also eclipsed the old mark of 14.7.

In addition, White was a nose behind first place in the 70-yard high hurdles with a 9.3 and high jumped to first place at 5-6.

The Indian C's lost 51-35 with Corey Patton capturing the only first place. His shot put was 41-11½. Ron White, running the 660 for the first time in competition, came in second with a 1:33.2.

No-Hitter, Two-Hitter Feature Jr. Loop Starts

Stingy pitching featured the two opening league games of the Parkmerced League last Saturday.

Bruce Hix hurled a no-hitter for the Excelsior Juniors as his team walked away with a 7-0 victory over the Parkmerced Juniors.

In the other contest, two hit pitching by Ron Johnson led Art Colvin's BYA Juniors to a 4-0 win over San Pedro Lunch. Dick Holmberg absorbed the loss for the San Pedro nine.

BYA infielders Bill Jones, John Vocke and Allan Contreras had safeties. This Saturday BYA meets Parkmerced at 10 a.m. at the Parkmerced field.

DC's Don Ricci In National Boxing Finals

Don Ricci, who lives at 160 Peoria street, will represent the University of California in the NCAA boxing finals at Madison, Wisconsin next week.

The 23-year-old Marine Corps veteran gained the chance to participate in the finals by knocking out Bruce Bellows of Stanford in the state intercollegiate tourney last Friday. It was the third meeting of the two 156-pounders.

Ricci's 1:06 second round knockout of Bellows was his most significant victory in his two years of boxing. Don, an accounting major, is a graduate of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School and Riordan High.

Jeff Hopes Rest With Five Events At El Cerrito

Jeff High's varsity hopes at the El Cerrito relays Saturday rest with the two mile relay team, shuttle hurdle relay team and the high jumping of Gary Molossi.

Bob Alverio, Joe Vaez, Joe Reynaga and Anibal Davila make up the two-mile unit. The shuttle-hurdle crew will consist of Art Banos, Willie White, Pennfield Jensen and a fourth runner yet to be picked by Coach Bob Watt.

The B's have a 440 and distance medley team entered.

Rams Put On Togs For Hit Attack; Win Easily, 11-2

Westmoor's batters put on their hitting togs to bang 14 hits off Riordan hurlers and a cakewalk to a 11-2 win at Marchbanks Park on March 22.

In addition to the stepped-up batting attack, Coach Rod Losberger led Barry Krohn go for the full seven innings, the first Ram pitcher to complete a game; and the fielders played errorless ball, another "first."

Krohn gave up four hits, walked four and struck out eight. The Crusaders made seven errors to help the Rams' cause.

Losberger was pleased with the rallying of his nine. Eleven ballplayers stepped to the plate in both the fifth and sixth innings after two were out. The Rams scored four and five times in the two cantos.

The clubbing attack was led by Rich Morales, Jim Heick and Ed Walthard who had three hits apiece. Morales had two doubles while Walthard had three runs - batted - in. Krohn and Tom McHugh had two hits in three trips. McHugh's blows were a double and triple. Terry Christman picked up the 14th hit, a single, but made it and other at bats count for three RBI's.

Krohn's best pitching came in the fourth when the bags were loaded with no outs. The Crusaders couldn't touch the plate on him that time.

Average personal income in California's 58 counties ranged from a high of $3500 per capita to a low of $1603 per capita in 1958.

SPORTS SPIN

By LOU LUCIA

HOW ABOUT ICING THE GAME: Since the U. S. hockey team won the Winter Olympics everybody has been going crazy over the ice-skate-stitch-bandage-ice game. Do you know who the top pro scorer for one season was? Maurice Richard rocketed 50 goals in 50 games in the 1956-57 season for the Montreal Canadiens. Fast scoring accolades go to Bill Mosenko, of the Chicago Black Hawks in 1952. He rifled three goals in the amazing time of 21 seconds!

ANTONELLI ATTENDED JEFF: SF Giants stylish southpaw Johnny Antonelli once attended Jeff High. Not "our" Indians, though. His Jeff High was in Rochester, New York. Right, Mr. Benny?

BABE RUTH LEAGUE TAKES HIS SALARY: It may be the Babe Ruth League in Redwood City that Marchbanks stereotypical Don Ozenbaugh's son is playing in, but you can't prove it by dad. It seems that Don's boy wants a $20 glove. Don, of course, kicked in the moola, but beforehand Big Daddy had plenty to say. "Just because he's playing in the Babe Ruth league doesn't mean I have to pay him the Babe's salary," Don told the missus.

SHORT CHOPPINGS: Hopes rest high with Floyd Gonella, new Oceana High department head and football coach, that he'll be able to find some ballplayers as "Tiny" as himself. . . . Tony Giammona, golf coach at Westmoor, is called "Butch" maybe it's cause that's what kind of haircut he gives to the greens when trying to hit the little pellet. . . . Frank Verducci, elementary district trustee and brother of Councilman Joe, is nicknamed "Bones." Apparently from the way he dug into opponents while playing for Mission High's soccer team. He also finds time to coach the sport at Everett junior high. . . . We always josh Italian brother Joe (Lucia) about being a member of the Irish (Sacred Heart High, that is) and his reply is: "It's not Irish, it's 'Fighting Irish.'" There's a difference, Giuseppe?

GOODWIN, MONTALBO TENTATIVE STARTERS

JEFF NINE WELCOMES RAMS FOR LOOP INAUGURAL TILT

Westmoor, figured by some as potential flag carriers, will face their first standard bearing test in the Peninsula League race this Friday.

Coach Rod Losberger's strong nine meets an able Jeff High team, sprinkled as it by salt with Frosh-Soph "grads," at the Indians' scalp-carving field at 3:15 p.m. Jeff must be figured as a question mark for the first few league games. The Indians have 10 of 19 players up from the championship Frosh-Soph squad and it will be up to these boys to pass the hit and field tests.

Losberger will probably send Bob Goodwin out for the initial start while Indian mentor Steve Mezzera will counter with fast-balling Stan Montalbo. Goodwin is a senior with two years experience and recorded a 2-3 mark last annum. Losberger says Barry Krohn is also a possibility as a mound choice if Goodwin isn't ready. Montalbo's soph hurling isn't to be overlooked, however. Stan had a 6-1 mark with 2.17 ERA. His best effort to date was against San Francisco AAA favorite Sacred Heart, in a practice game this year when he lost a heart-breaker, 1-0.

Mezzera expects slick fielding and sharp hitting from George Claus. "If he plays up to his ability, he could be our most outstanding player," the coach claims. Steve also looks to the power of Tony Montalbo and Rich Mortola and the fielding of Jack Furtess for valuable 1930 aid.

Furtess is a doubtful starter as he has been battling the flu bug. Catcher Ed Crowley is "definitely out" for two weeks due to stepping on a piece of glass after a practice game. Mike Kennedy, usually an infielder, will fill in behind the plate.

If Furtess is unable to play, either John Souza or Sonny Stoiler will move to rightfield with J. B. Berry taking a few steps over to center.

Jeff had a poor practice season but Mezzera usually brings his baseballers along slowly until the opening league tilt.

Westmoor, on the other hand, has had good practice results. They won five of their first seven. Tom McHugh crashed three doubles and two triples in 14 trips for a .357 mark. Other potent stickers are Ed Walthard, 9 for 18 for an even .500 and one RBI per game average and Jim Heick, 6 for 18 for .333. Terry Christman punched eight runners across the plate to lead in this department.

Rich Morales, the only starter not on the club last year, has had 25 chances at shortstop without a single bobble. Mezzera picks Westmoor South City and Mills as the top three nines. "I know Losberger has a good club. Bob Brian's South City nine can beat you with hustle alone and Mills must be considered a sleeper," Mezzera stated.

Losberger mentioned two of the clubs, preferring to leave Westmoor in the ominous shadows.

Westmoor plays their first league tilt on their home field Tuesday against San Mateo while Jeff travels to Hillsdale.

Tentative starting lineups for Westmoor and Jeff Friday as announced by Coaches Rod Losberger and Steve Mezzera are:

JEFF FROSH TUNE UP FOR OPENER

Tuning up for this Friday's opening Frosh-Soph league game at Westmoor, the Jeff High young'uns bested Carlmont, 2-1, at Marchbanks Park last Friday.

Bob Miller moved his practice record to 2-0 by allowing but five hits, walking five and striking out nine. The Indians scored first in the bottom of the fourth. Bob Brush's grounder to deep shortstop forced the Carlmont middle - fielder to force a runner at second, Miller scoring on the play.

Carlmont tied the game in the sixth; a walk, sacrifice and an error doing the damage. Jeff broke through the tight Carlmont defense in the sixth with two outs. Mike Morton singled and stole second. Mike Rovali, outstanding in the field all day long, also produced with the bat, doubling Morton home.

Westmoor remained in second place in golf standings with a 3-1 mark by defeating Capuchino, 13-8, last Friday.

Mike Seelig's 76 earned him a tie as medalist for the day. Teammates Jim Roman, 80, Marty Seelig and Sam Malta, 83, all won. Bob Snyder's 79 was three strokes too many as he lost.

The Ram linksmen lost a practice match to Washington, 12-9. Three golfers lost out by one stroke. Losers were Bob Snyder, 75, Jim Roman, 80, and Mike Seelig, 76. Marty Seelig tied his opponent with an 81, while Sam Malta, ironically

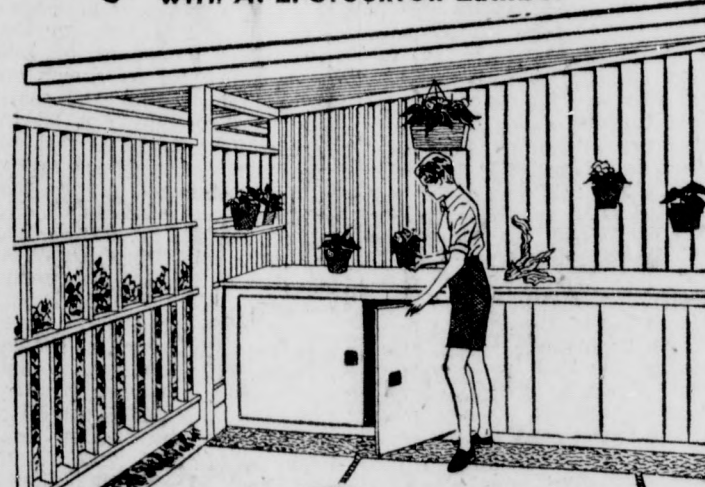

HONEYWELL DOING 'WELL' FOR NAVY

Jim Honeywell, former Jeff High grider who was named an All-Northern California star in his prep days here, is making a name for himself in Navy spring football practice at Annapolis.

Honeywell is being considered for a first string left half-back berth with the Middies next fall. He's a sophomore for Coach Wayne Hardin. Honeywell also performed at fullback for Stanford's frosh and as a sophomore. His father is Wallace Honeywell, Colma town councilman.
